Business Ethics

The Business Ethics Role Play invites you to step into the role of expert ethics consultants who must rapidly address a critical, real-world ethical dilemma. Participants are tasked with analyzing complex situations, such as navigating stakeholder conflicts, responding to corporate misconduct, or balancing profit with social responsibility, and applying their knowledge of core ethical frameworks and principles to develop a viable and comprehensive resolution.

You will be able to articulate and present your reasoned recommendations to a business executive (the judge), and you must demonstrate professional judgment, organized thinking, and outstanding communication skills while defending your ethical analysis in a high-pressure environment. This event is designed to test your ability to connect ethical principles with business decisions and develop responsible strategies for complex moral challenges.

Scoring and Evaluation

The total score for the event is 100 points. The evaluation is split into two weighted categories: Response Criteria (20%), Performance Indicators (50%) and Presentation Criteria (30%).

I. Response Criteria - 20 Points

- The Response Criteria evaluate the participant's ability to analyze the business situation and develop strategic recommendations.
- The judges evaluate 2 specific criteria:
  - Demonstrates understanding of the role play and defines the business objectives
  - Identifies logical solution and develops implementation plan
- Each of the 2 criteria is worth a maximum of 10 points.

II. Performance Indicators – 50 Points

- Performance Indicators are the technical evaluation criteria, reflecting how well participants apply the core marketing concepts outlined in the knowledge areas (e.g., Ethical Foundations, Data Privacy, Sustainability, etc.).
- The judge evaluates 5 specific Performance Indicators relevant to the scenario.
- Each of the 5 Performance Indicators is worth a maximum of 10 points.

III. Presentation Criteria – 30 Points

- The Presentation Criteria evaluate the professional quality of the delivery and critical thinking demonstrated by the team.
- The judges evaluate 3 specific criteria:
  - Statements are well-organized and clearly stated; demonstrates preparedness?
  - Consistently display confidence, poised body language, engaging eye contact, and effective voice projection?
  - Demonstrates the ability to effectively answer the judges' questions?
